

Appendix 1 to the Executive Order No. 01-03 / 810
of the Ministry of Education of the Republic of Sakha (Yakutia), signed on April 21st, 2022

2022 International "Tuymadaa" Olympiad for School Students within the 2nd Yakutsk International Science Games Regulations

1. These regulations for the International "Tuymadaa" Olympiad for School Students (hereinafter referred to as the Olympiad) within the 2nd Yakutsk International Science Games (hereinafter referred to as YISG) are effective in 2022 and determine the Olympiad' rules that comply with the measures adopted at preventing the spread of a new coronavirus infection (COVID-19) in the Russian Federation.
2. The main objectives to be accomplished by the Olympiad are: to promote the development of intellectual potential of exceptional students, to encourage them to study fundamental sciences and foster international cooperation and communication.
3. The Olympiad subjects are "Mathematics", "Physics", "Chemistry" and "Informatics".

The Olympiad in mathematics, physics, chemistry is held in two age groups of students:

- Junior League - students who graduated in the current calendar year 9th grade (or younger) of general educational organizations in the Russian Federation and (or) in the secondary general education of other countries;
- Senior league - students who graduated in the current calendar year 10-12 grades of general educational organizations in the Russian Federation and (or) in the secondary general education of other countries. In the senior league, younger age participants can also participate if they wish so in the senior league.

The Informatics Olympiad is not divided into leagues.

4. The Olympiad in the senior league and in informatics is held according to the tasks corresponding to the programs of the official International Olympiads.

The Olympiad in the junior league is held on assignments of a creative nature, corresponding to the educational program of basic general education of general educational organizations of the Russian Federation.

5. The Olympiad format:

- offline for the subjects “Physics” and “Chemistry”, and no more than 100 school students are allowed to take part (COVID19 situation permitting);
- participants from the Republic of Sakha (Yakutia) participate offline, and no more than 100 school students are allowed to take part (COVID19 situation permitting);
- online for the other participants, using the online proctoring system;
- online for participants in the subject “Physics” - the Olympiad is held in one round (theoretical) (in case of an unfavorable epidemiological situation in the Republic);
- online for participants in the subject “Chemistry” - the Olympiad is held in one round (the second round of the Olympiad - a thought experiment) (in case of an unfavorable epidemiological situation in the Republic);

6. The official language of the Olympiad is English.

7. Olympiad competitions last full two days.

8. The Olympiad participation procedure:

- persons and organizations sending participants must apply for participation in the Olympiad by May 15th by filling up the Application form and sending it via e-mail to the following address: tuymaada2017@mail.ru The application form is available on the official website <http://tuymaada.lensky-kray.ru/>
- the Olympiad organizing committee sends an invitation with the list of students invited to participate in the Olympiad by May 31st.
- persons who have received an invitation are registered electronically using the link indicated in the invitation until June 12, 2022.

9. The Olympiad organizing committee reserves the right to limit participants representing one country or a Russian Federation region.

10. The cost of registration fee is:

- for online participants - 5000 rubles for the participants of the Russian Federation. For participants from foreign countries, the registration fee is 50 US dollars.
- for offline participants – 15000 rubles for the participants of the Russian Federation. For participants from foreign countries, the registration fee is 150 US dollars.